I Made Sidia's workshop

Master Puppeteer (Indonesia)

I Made Sidia is one of Indonesia’s most acclaimed dalangs or master puppeteer, from Bali Indonesia. A dalang is not only an artist but the main figure of a traditional wayang performance.

I Made Sidia directs, teaches and performs traditional Balinese Wayang Shadow theatre, Topeng mask dances and Gamelan music. He has collaborated in a large number of intercultural and international performances (including the Australian production of “Theft of Sita”) and toured to the U.S., Europe, Australia and Asia.

In Melbourne he will teach puppetry master classes and collaborate with the Community Gamelan Orchestra

The Masterclasses are being presented in association with UNIMA.
